

2009 DAY OF CARING GOES GREEN!

Community Garden to Feed Local People in Need

WHEN: Friday * August 14 * 7:30-3:00

7:00 to 7:30 - Registration - breakfast included!

7:30 - Opening Ceremony

Lunch and Snacks provided to all volunteers!

WHERE: High Plains Food Bank Garden

810 S. Ross

WHY: Be a part of the caring spirit of teamwork while helping to create the area's first COMMUNITY GARDEN as United Way partners with the High Plains Food Bank and The High Plains Institute for Applied Ecology.

TO VOLUNTEER:

- CALL 2-1-1 Texas (dial 2-1-1 from any cell or landline)
- Ask for Desire'
- Or email desire@unitedwayama.org

Volunteers will erect fences, place a water catchment system, construct raised planting beds and plant trees, fruits and vegetables.

Bring your gloves, garden tools, and a desire to help!

Cook-out lunch for volunteers provided by Amarillo National Bank's Grill Team!